

Media Release - 11 October 2019, Canada

Iress appoints industry veteran as Managing Director - Canada

Technology company Iress today announced it had appointed industry veteran Andrew Jappy to lead its Canadian business.

Mr. Jappy has over 30 years of international leadership experience in financial services technology, and brings an in-depth understanding of the Canadian market. His experience includes more than 20 years at Canaccord Genuity, where he served as EVP & Group CIO. Most recently, he was an expert consultant to Canadian and global companies on a range of technology and business growth initiatives.

Andrew Walsh, CEO, Iress, said: "Canada is an important part of Iress' strategy and I am confident Andrew has the right skills, experience and industry relationships to build on our solid foundations in the region. Andrew will be focused on ensuring we continue to deliver a great experience to our existing clients as well as growing our presence with new clients."

Andrew Jappy, Managing Director, Canada, Iress said: "I'm impressed by the team and technology at Iress. Iress' global and local subject matter expertise positions us well to support businesses in Canada and our team looks forward to collaborating with clients to deliver premium software and services in support of their goals."

Mr Jappy's appointment is effective immediately.
